

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT: TRUE FACTS ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN IN CLAVERACK

On November 6 and 7, CLAVERACK REPUBLICANS ran an ad in this newspaper implying that CLAVERACK DEMOCRATS tried to mislead voters.

THAT'S JUST NOT TRUE.

THE TRUTH IS, Town Board candidate CYNDY HALL ran on the HOMETOWN PARTY line five years ago, in 2000.

THE TRUTH IS, Claverack Democrats registered the HOMETOWN PARTY line again this year, on August 19, more than two weeks before Claverack Republicans appeared in a photograph in this newspaper, on September 4, calling themselves the "Hometown Team." And that was more than a month before their billboard went up with the slogan "Claverack's REAL Hometown Team."

THE TRUTH IS, Claverack Democrats have run an ethical campaign and will run an ethical government. Our hometown values include straight talk and accountability.

TRUE hometown values don't include last minute false attacks.
